People for Change formed the District 6 Coalition to provide a voice for the residents of District 6 in this local election. All too often the establishment and special interests will identify their candidate, put money and resources behind them and the people are not being represented.

People for Change represents one of the largest grassroots organizations in Prince George's County reaching over 30,000 households. Our mission is to hold elected officials accountable and encourage the constituents to be more engaged in the political process.
